

Dairy Council

Northern Ireland

Young Cook of the Year 2012

Key Stage 3 and Special Education Categories

Cooking Challenge

The 2012 Olympic Games will be held in London. Students are invited to plan a two-course meal for four sporty friends to enjoy before watching their favourite event.

The meal should be appealing; use local ingredients where possible and take into consideration healthy eating guidelines. In addition, both courses should include Northern Ireland Milk and dairy products such as MILK, CHEESE, YOGURT, BUTTERMILK, and HALF-FAT BUTTER

Entries may be submitted using the pro forma on the website of the Dairy Council for Northern Ireland (www.dairycouncil.co.uk), or handwritten (using black ink), or typed in Microsoft Word format.

Entries must be limited to 4 sides of A4 paper. It is not necessary to include a photograph of the dish.

Each entrant must include the following information:

- Student's name
- Key stage category
- Teacher's name, telephone number and email
- School name, address, and phone number
- Area Education and Library Board
- Name of dish(es)
- List of ingredients
- Preparation Method
- Nutritional contribution of dairy products used
List four nutrients provided by the dairy products included in the meal. Two of these nutrients should be chosen and a brief explanation provided of why they are important in the diet. Special education students should list and explain the importance of one nutrient.
- Use of local products
Students should list the ingredients they have used that have been produced in Northern Ireland.
- Creativity
Judges will look for creativity in the choice of foods, and the ways in which they have been combined in the menu.

* Key Stage 3 and Special Education Categories will be required to cook the main course only at the Finals.

Key Stage 4 Category

Cooking Challenge

The 2012 Olympic Games will be held in London. Students are invited to plan a two-course meal for four sporty friends to enjoy before watching their favourite event.

The meal should be appealing; use local ingredients where possible and take into consideration healthy eating guidelines. In addition, both courses should include Northern Ireland Milk and dairy products such as MILK, CHEESE, YOGURT, BUTTERMILK, and HALF-FAT BUTTER

Entries may be submitted using the pro forma on the website of the Dairy Council for Northern Ireland (www.dairycouncil.co.uk), or handwritten (using black ink), or typed in Microsoft Word format.

Entries must be limited to 4 sides of A4 paper. It is not necessary to include a photograph of the dish.

Each entrant must include the following information:

- Student's name
- Key stage category
- Teacher's name, telephone number and email
- School name, address, and phone number
- Area Education and Library Board
- Name of dish(es)
- List of ingredients
- Preparation Method
- Nutritional contribution of dairy products used
List four nutrients provided by the dairy products included in the meal. Two of these nutrients should be chosen and a brief explanation provided of why they are important in the diet. Special education students should list and explain the importance of one nutrient.
- Healthy eating
Explanation of how the menu has been developed to reflect healthy eating guidelines.
- Use of local products
Students should list the ingredients they have used that have been produced in Northern Ireland.
- Creativity
Judges will look for creativity in the choice of foods, and the ways in which they have been combined in the menu.

Information for Teachers

The objective of the competition is to encourage students to combine an understanding of good nutrition and value for money with creative flair and the ability to produce tasty and attractive food. In doing this, students should be encouraged to source and use locally produced food.

The Competition is open to students throughout Northern Ireland at Key Stage 3 and Key Stage 4 levels; and those in Special Education schools. The Competition has been designed to support the current Home Economics curriculum, and has been endorsed by CCEA.

The closing date for entry is 1st March 2011.

There is no limit on the number of entries that can be submitted by a school.

Entries will be judged initially, based on E&LB area, with the winner in each category in each E&LB area being invited to participate in Finals, at which they will have to prepare their menu. Judging at E&LB level and at the Finals will be by a panel of judges drawn from a range of relevant backgrounds. Finals will be held on a date and at a venue to be decided.

No entry fee is required.

In entering this Competition, schools and students agree to participate in all associated promotional activities organised by DCNI or its representatives.

Copyright for all recipes submitted for consideration in the Competition automatically become the property of the Dairy Council for Northern Ireland.

The judges' decisions will be final and correspondence will not be entered into.

Prizes

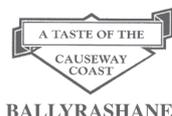

- Each pupil selected as a category winner at E&LB level will receive a voucher for £50
- The school of each category winner at E&LB level will receive £100
- At the Finals, each pupil selected as an overall category winner will receive a voucher for £50
- The school of each overall category winner at the Finals will receive £250
- The winner of 2010 Young Cook of the Year will receive a voucher for £100
- The school of the winner of 2010 Young Cook of the Year will receive £500.

Please return your application no later than 1st March 2011, to:

Young Cook of the Year
The Dairy Council for N.I.
Shaftesbury House
Edgewater Office Park, Edgewater Road,
Belfast BT3 9JQ

T: 028 9077 0113
E: info@dairycouncil.co.uk
W: www.dairycouncil.co.uk

DRAYNES FARMS
"Country Fresh"

